Our Vision

We are a Catholic Community who profess, celebrate and witness that Jesus lives, and to whom the Father sends His Spirit. We express that belief by living out and spreading the message of the Gospel.

23rd and 24th of March 2019

3rd Sunday of Lent - Year C

Now that our Lenten journey is well underway, we move into a new phase of the season. So far we have been guided by the stories of Jesus' testing in the wilderness and his transfiguration on the holy mountain. In Year A the Gospels from the following three Sundays are all from John. They present Jesus as the living water, the light of the world, and the resurrection and the life. So central are these stories in the liturgical tradition, and so apt for the preparation of the elect for their baptism at Easter, that these Gospels and the readings that go with them may be read every year. They are alluded to in the scrutinies celebrated on these Sundays to test and strengthen the elect. In Year C the Gospel text is all from Luke, with the exception of one from John. Together with key stories from the old testament, and telling passages from Paul, they raise serious questions for us would be followers of Jesus to wrestle with along the way.

First Communion

On Sunday the 31st of March, we welcome our First Communion Children who will be received at the table of our Lord at the 11.15am Mass. We look forward to seeing them.

Sharing of Submissions to Plenary Council 2020

The Listening and Dialogue phase of Plenary Council 2020 closed on Ash Wed. If you have submitted a response to the Plenary Council and would like to share it with the parish community, please email it to Cheryl.tay@cam.org.au, or drop it off at the parish office by Sunday 31st March 2019. A compilation will be done and made available to the community thereafter.

SPARC Worship Night

Saturday 30th March – 6.00pm Mass and starts at 7.15pm
At Ss Peter and Paul's Church

Lent is a season in which we are called to stop whatever it is we are doing, no matter how important it might be, and intentionally enter into prayer, self-examination and repentance with the sole purpose of returning to God with all our hearts. This goes beyond the usual "What am I giving up for Lent this year" and really exhorts us to ask ourselves "How can I give all of myself: my dreams, my hopes, my fears, my life, my heart, to God?" As we prepare for Easter, we invite you to carve out some time to join us in preparing our hearts for this truth - that God loves us so much that He gave His all through Jesus that we might be saved.

Lenten Reflection and Discussion Afternoon

Our parish Lenten Reflection and Discussion program this year will be held every Tues 2pm to 3.30pm, beginning March 12th. Please put your name and contact details on the sign-up sheet in the narthex if you would like to attend.

Donation of Palm or Olive Branches for Palm Sunday

This year, Palm Sunday falls on the 14th April. If you have palms or olive branches you'd like to donate to the parish for this occasion, please contact Cheryl at the parish office on Tues, Wed or Fri (9am – 3pm) by 29th March 19.

Rosemary Jolley

For parishioners who know Rosemary, we are sad to advise that she went home to God on the 20th of March 2019. Her funeral service will be here at SSPP on Tue the 26th of March at 11.00am

LENT PODCAST SERIES: THE LENTEN PILGRIM |
Lent W3: The Woman at the Well

In this third episode of The Lenten Pilgrim podcast series, Fr Elio Capra SDB discusses the gospel of John (4:5-42), where Jesus encounters the Samaritan woman at the well. As part of his reflection, Fr Elio refers to a sculpture located at Chester Cathedral (UK), reflecting on why such a modern piece of art has been placed outside the seemingly old cathedral (UK). He says, 'The woman is talking about water. H2O. Jesus is talking about something much deeper than that: "a living water that will well up to eternal life." The word "eternal", we think, is of an afterlife but it also means the "fullness of life". This water gives us a fullness of life now. ... There is also an intense gaze into each other. Her gaze is a gaze of longing. It's the gaze of a person who wants to love and to be loved. This is the longing in the heart of every human being that has ever lived: to love and to be loved. And so Jesus looks up at her. He is the one that can provide the living water that can fill our hearts with this love. ... The more we empty ourselves, the more Christ will be able to fill our hearts.' For other resources to use during the Season of Lent, please visit the Archbishop's Office for Evangelisation Melbourne

We cannot ignore the fact that there is as much slavery in the world today, as there was before, or perhaps more – said Pope Francis last month.

Can't find slavery-free Easter eggs in your supermarket?

Ten years ago there was almost no slavery-free chocolate in our supermarkets in Australia. Now, because of public pressure and consumer demands, most supermarkets will sell some. Thank you for contributing to the demand for slavery-free chocolate, but we have a long way to go.

Good news: There is now slavery-free chocolate available in so many places. It tastes delicious and is no more expensive than other chocolate. Try ALDI, Haighs, OXFAM and leading supermarkets.

The Catholic Archdiocese Melbourne is also converting to slavery-free tea and coffee. Get on board!

Action: When you go to your local supermarket, look for chocolate that has one of these three symbols. If you can't find any, ask the manager if they stock any.

PROJECT COMPASSION

Third Sunday of Lent
24th March 2019

Peter goes to a boarding school in the Solomon Islands which has experienced water shortages for 60 years. Previously, students would have to walk kilometres each day in search of clean water, which was particularly challenging for Peter who is living with a disability. With Caritas Australia's support, the school has created a new reliable water system. With more free time and fewer illnesses caused by dirty water, Peter can fulfil his hope of focusing on his studies, providing him with brighter future.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2019 and help young people with disabilities gain access to clean water in the Solomon Islands, providing hope for a brighter future.

Lives change when we all give 100%. You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

The Nappy Collective

Our church is a collection point for The Nappy Collective this May, and we need your nappies!

The Nappy Collective gathers thousands of donated nappies, sorts them and distributes them to families in need through more than 200 organisations across Australia.

We'll have a box set up in the Narthex from Friday the 10th of May to Sunday the 26th of May. We'd love it if you could bring in any unused, disposable nappies you no longer need.

Maybe your child has moved up a nappy size, or has figured out toilet training (congratulations!), or you've got a handful of random nappies in the back of the cupboard that you don't know what to do with. Ask your friends with kids, too. Every nappy counts!

Your nappy may go to help a mum fleeing family violence, an asylum seeker or refugee, or a family struggling with homelessness, mental illness, drug abuse or extreme financial hardship: people who may have to choose between buying nappies or buying food.

Find out more at www.thenappycollective.com. Or contact [insert contact name/phone/email if wanted].

Please note, The Nappy Collective can only take disposable nappies. If you have other items you'd like to donate – such as baby clothes, toys, cloth nappies or bottles – please consider donating them to an organisation like St Kilda Mums, or your local op shop.

Did You Know

- The son going to 'a distant country' shows that he has turned his back not only on his father but also on his faith. He has left his true heritage behind. His repentance and return becomes all the more poignant.
